

Save the Old Spotted Dog! Save our heritage!

Dear Friends

The Old Spotted Dog on Upton Lane has been empty for too long. Reputedly Henry VIII's hunting lodge, it is one of the oldest buildings in East London and the oldest secular building in Newham. It is a scandal that it remains empty, vandalised and unused.

We are setting up a charitable trust to acquire and renovate the building, and set the parameters for its future use. We are confident that, once restored, The Old Spotted Dog, with its unique history, will attract local people as well as visitors from much further afield. We are campaigning to bring this important community asset back into use

Help us to restore the Old Spotted Dog to a hub of community interaction, food, drink, culture and heritage

This leaflet sets out our ideas. Now we need to know what you think.

We have set up an online survey which should take only two or three minutes to complete, to gauge your opinions (Only one survey per adult per household please). To encourage as many of you as possible to respond, there will be a prize draw. You could win lunch for two at the Houses of Parliament with Lyn Brown MP, a strong supporter of the campaign.

You'll find the survey at our website, or for you modern types, you can scan the QR code below to fill it in on your mobile device. The survey ends on July 31st and we'd love to get a huge response to show the strength of feeling about this issue.

Please show your support by displaying the back of this leaflet in your front window!

Many thanks,

Here is our vision: what we think customers may like (and may not find elsewhere!).

- A country pub in the city, homely and welcoming
- Good quality food reasonably priced and cooked on the premises
- Friendly, efficient service
- A tea room for after those walks in West Ham Park
- A performance space for music and comedy
- A warm welcome for families
- A home from home for the community
